

PRINCESS' HOME FALLING INTO SEA

Bromholm Abbey, the Romantic House of the Duleep Singhs, Will, It Is Feared, Be Washed Away in the Gales—Parties Are Grieved.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Prince and Princess Duleep Singh will not be able to enjoy their pretty little bungalow near the ruins of Bromholm Abbey, on the southern coast, much longer.

If the October gales come on with their usual fury next month the whole place may fall into the sea.

A mighty lump of the low cliff on which it stands, fell with a hollow rumble last year, meadow, high road, and all sliding down with a rush of thousands of tons of earth. Millions of tons along that part of the coast are now ready to fall as soon as the strong winds and high tides of autumn get to work on them.

The Prince and Princess Duleep Singh (who was Lady Anne Coventry) are much grieved over this, as they were fond of the place, and the dry, bracing air is beneficial to the prince's rheumatism. They are now making a stay at Harrogate, which is very "settled" compared with the boundless unconventionality of the lone Bromholm region.

As a result of the star chamber policy of the Board of Education in disposing of the Swartzell case, at least one of its members was placed in a false light.

Southard Parker denies indignantly that he made use of the word "rabble" when speaking of the opposition to the principal of the Eastern High School. "I made use of no such language," said Mr. Parker yesterday, "nor of anything that could be tortured into such a belief as my course in the Swartzell case was the proper one, and I have nothing to apologize for in that connection, but I concede to every man the right to hold opinions different from my own, and I certainly would never dream of applying the term 'rabble' to the people of an entire section of the city."

Those who know Mr. Parker and his habitual courtesy in his intercourse with everybody say his disclaimer will be accepted without a question.

MR. PARKER ENTERS VIGOROUS DISCLAIMER

Denies That He Resorted to Use of Word "Rabble" in Discussing Swartzell Case.

Those who know Mr. Parker and his habitual courtesy in his intercourse with everybody say his disclaimer will be accepted without a question.

POLICE WANT MEN WHO SOUNDED FALSE ALARMS

Fifty dollars reward has been offered by Major Sylvester for information leading to the arrest of two men who have made a practice of turning in false alarms of fire in the northwest section of the city during the last three days. It is said two men in a buggy are the guilty parties. On Thursday three alarms were sounded from boxes in remote sections of the city, and last night another was sounded. Firemen responded, but could find no fire, and complaint was made to the police.

POLICE BUSY HUNTING MISSING YOUNGSTERS

Two Deaf Mutes, Who Wanted to Enter Gallaudet College, Have Disappeared.

Officials of the Gallaudet College have requested the police to locate two students, who are believed to be lost in Washington. They are both deaf mutes, who visited the college on Thursday, and, after remaining there several hours, started out to see the city. They have not been seen or heard of since. Their names are Talbot and Delrich. Their christian names were not ascertained because of the short time they were in the college. Margaret Lloyd, the pretty fifteen-year-old girl who lives at 1233 Seventh street, and who has the "running away habit," is again among the missing. Her parents have asked the police to maintain a lookout for her. The girl is stylishly dressed, and looks about three years older than she is.

Early in July she ran away from her home, and, after a diligent search by her parents, she was located in Alexandria, where she said she was lured by a young man. The police have no trace of her this time.

Another missing person is Otto Reiner, fifteen years old, of 32 K street northeast. The police say the boy's relatives informed them that he ran away because he was dissatisfied with his home. At the time of his disappearance the lad wore a new blue suit.

APPEAL FILED BY SENATOR MITCHELL

Senator Mitchell, who was convicted in Oregon of being implicated in the land frauds in that State, has appealed from the judgment of the United States district court for Oregon to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The papers in the case were filed in the United States Supreme Court yesterday.

ONE EYE DESTROYED WATCHING ECLIPSE

STRASBURG, Sept. 23.—In spite of all the efforts of prominent oculists to save him from going blind, it is now certain that Charles Neerheim, a student of the university here, has lost the sight of one of his eyes through watching the eclipse of the sun.

Neerheim had been gaining very steadily with his naked eye at the sun for some minutes preceding the eclipse. Suddenly he uttered a piercing shriek and fell fainting to the ground.

He was conveyed to the hospital, where it was found that the rays of the sun, being focussed with great intensity upon the retina of the right eye, had affected it at though passing through a lens, or burning glass, and had burned a hole in the retina.
